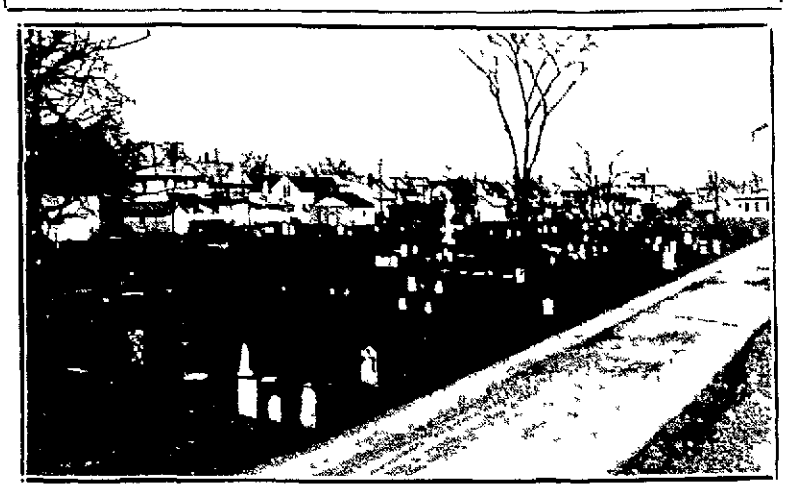
OLD BURIAL GROUND TO BE RESTORED



The photograph above shows the old Quarry street cemetery, first public burial grounds in Marion which is to be restored and beautified if a drive being conducted by a group of public spirited citizens is successful. They seek $1,000 for the project, planning to set up the dozens of fallen grave markers, clean the grounds and plant a hedge fence around it. The burial grounds, unused for more than half a century, has been used as a dumping ground and boys occasionally have played baseball there. REFUSES PLEA FOR INJUNCTION

Judge Declines To Restrain Police from Interfering With Mint Machine

"SHOVEL" TYPE DEVICES

Attorney Declares Case Will Be Carried To Court of Appeals

Common Pleas Judge Hector S Young yesterday afternoon denied the Ohio Amusement Co of Columbus an injunction to restrain Police Chief William E Marks from confiscating mint vending machines which the company said it intended to distribute in the city.

Grant E Mouser Jr attorney for the company said the case will be carried immediately to the court of appeals as soon as the necessary records can be prepared.

Judge Young gave no written opinion in the matter.

The suit was filed March 19 and asked the court to restrain Chief Marks from carrying out alleged threats to confiscate all machines of the type involved. They are known as Viking Silent Salesmen and are equipped with miniature steam shovels which the purchaser of five cent mints may operate in an attempt to scoop up a prize.

The city through City Solicitor Ralph E Carhart maintained in its pleadings and at a formal hearing March 26 before Judge Young that the machine is a gambling device and is prejudicial to public health, morals, safety and general welfare of the citizens of Marion.

The company and its president Raymond A Norwood of Columbus argued the machine is merely a sales promoting device to increase purchases of their breath pellets. In written brief the company argued also the machine is a game of skill and hence not a machine of chance.

TEST CONTEMPT CASE IS DELAYED

By The Associated Press

AKRON O April 17—Supplemental charges which were to have been filed today against Walter Morrow editor of the Times Press in his contempt case will not be filed until next week because of the absence from the courthouse of Assistant Prosecutor Glenn A Peters who is handling the case against Morrow for Common Pleas Judge Walter B Wanamaker.

The original contempt charge was based on an alleged violation of the unusual cloak of secrecy which Judge Wanamaker attempted to throw around the actions of the present Summit county grand jury. Supplemental charges were to include additional alleged violations, each a printing of some item forbidden in the press by Judge Wanamaker's rule. The case will be heard Friday.

Executive Board Acts To Reestablish Community Chest in City

First step toward reestablishing a community fund for Marion was taken last night at a meeting of the executive committee of the Y M C A at Hotel Marion. An exhaustive report of financial campaigns conducted by various social agencies in the city from 1929 to the present was made and discussed.

The committee decided to recommend to the board of directors of the Y M C A at the board's next meeting in about two weeks that a conference of representatives of other agencies in the city to discuss the possibility of organizing a united financial drive to be conducted this fall by the various agencies which have been conducting individual campaigns.

Most of the business meeting which followed the dinner was occupied by a careful study of the report. The agencies which will be asked to attend the proposed conference are the Red Cross, Boy Scouts, Salvation Army and the Y M C A.

A W Kelle was appointed chairman of a special committee to arrange for the conference. Other members will be appointed later. Present at last night's meeting were Judge Hector S Young, Edgar Barnhart, F G Siefert, John Stafford, Mr Kelle and Earl N Hale.

Routine matters pertaining to the care of the building and to program needs were also discussed. May 17 was set for the date of the annual meeting of the Y M C A.

FERGUSON PROBES CARNEY CASE DEEPER

Asks for Evidence To Show That Securities Division Men Aided Defendant

By The Associated Press

COLUMBUS O April 17—State Auditor Joseph T Ferguson asked County Prosecutor Ralph J Bartlett today to give him any evidence which might show that employes of the state division of securities devoted time to aiding Edward T Carney under indictment of two counts of bribery.

"If it is shown that these employes have neglected their regular duties this office will take whatever steps are necessary to prevent the expenditure of state funds for this purpose," Ferguson said.

"This is not an idle threat. I propose to refuse payment of the salaries of these employes as well as payment of their expense accounts."

Bartlett, criticizing the division of securities for failing to cooperate, asserted that some examiners and employes had traveled over the state, gathered evidence and turned it over to Carney who is on leave as assistant chief of the division.

Carney was indicted on a charge of accepting $6,050 in connection with a stock certification of Consolidated Motors Corp of Lima.

JONES IS GIVEN TERM IN PRISON

Marion Man Charged With Auto Theft Given One to Twenty Years

NEW TRIAL IS DENIED

Asserts Innocence and Delivers Tirade in Court Before Sentence Passed

John T Jones 24 of Edwards street was sentenced to a term of from one to 20 years in Ohio penitentiary this morning by Judge Hector S Young two days after a common pleas court jury found him guilty of auto theft. Judge Young also overruled a motion for a new trial filed by Jones' attorneys.

Asked by the judge if he had anything to say before sentence was pronounced Jones launched into a seven minute talk in which he asserted his innocence and bitterly condemned the jury. He made it plain however that he holds nothing against Sheriff Fred F Miller who has been his custodian for several weeks or against the judge.

"Everyone knows I'm innocent—everyone but the jury," Jones declared. "You are sending an innocent man to prison to suffer but I know you can't help that. You have to do what the jury says.

"I hope those jurors think about me while I'm down there in prison. Maybe then they'll begin to be sorry."

Jones also asked the court to "clean up" the county jail which he said was not in good condition for keeping men confined.

Jones' familiarity with legal procedure was a source of some amazement to court officials. Prosecuting Attorney Paul D Michel in his presentation of the state's case at the trial Thursday recited Jones' criminal record showing the prisoner had been confined several times in Lancaster and Mansfield reformatories, once in Ohio penitentiary and once in federal prison at Leavenworth Kan.

Jones' contention that everyone knew he was innocent following the trial is not borne out by the results of a poll taken by a class of Pleasant township school students who attended as a part of their education. Of the 25 in the class 21 voted guilty, two voted guilty with mercy and two found him innocent. The poll was taken by the teacher at the conclusion of the trial, court officials said.

Jones was accused of taking the auto of Francis Bender from its parking place on West Center street Feb 27. He testified that he and three companions got into the car to rest when his sister developed foot trouble while walking. George Pluchel and Homer F Johnson are his attorneys. Wayford Rathborn who was returned to Ohio penitentiary as a parole violator after his arrest in the car with Jones and two women was a defense witness also. He has been returned to the penitentiary. Jones will be taken next week, sheriff's deputies said.

NO NEW TAXES FORECAST AS ASSEMBLY END NEARS

Opposition to Added Levies Likely To Require Local Authorities To Shoulder Relief Burden Alone.

By The Associated Press

COLUMBUS O April 17—Developments this week indicated strongly today that the Ohio legislature would adjourn early in May without levying new taxes.

Administration leaders frankly recognize a growing opposition in both the senate and house toward calling upon the taxpayers for more money.

The sentiment is so great that a leading administration spokesman who has advocated a new tax for poor relief said he believed the state government would let the cities and townships shoulder the relief problem alone. At least until the end of the year. Six million dollars in sales tax revenue have been set aside for relief in 1938.

Gov Martin L Davey said today that "our budget will be balanced except for relief." He previously said an extra $10,000,000 would be needed for the repair of highways damaged by floods.

The governor said further that if the legislature makes no substantial cut in the $59,038,000 biennial appropriation bill the state should end the biennium with a surplus of $4,000,000 or $5,000,000. He hopes to use much of this to improve welfare institutions.

GALION AUDITOR GOES TO PRISON

William A Trapp Sentenced to Ohio Pen When He Changes Plea to Guilty

ACCUSED OF FORGERY

Former Official Given Indeterminate Term by Judge C U Ahl

Special to The Star

BUCYRUS April 17—William A Trapp former Galion city auditor under indictment on 24 counts of forgery by the Crawford county grand jury today changed a former plea to guilty before Common Pleas Judge C H Ahl.

Trapp was given an indefinite sentence to the Ohio penitentiary with the recommendation that he be paroled in 10 months. Trapp had pleaded not guilty at an arraignment March 13 and was being held in the Crawford county jail pending trial.

The former auditor had been bound to the grand jury under $10,000 bond Jan 1. He was accused of forging vouchers, some late in 1935, to the amount of $875 against the city utility fund.

Officials said Trapp made bills out in the name of an employe called to Galion several times a year to do service work on the city power and light plant. They said Trapp then forged the name of H C Dye, superintendent of utilities at Galion, for approval of the bills. The next step, officials said, was to sign the name of Service Director L A Cline to vouchers. Finally checks were made out by forging the payee's name and then countersigned.

He was bound to the grand jury after pleading innocent and waiving preliminary examination before Mayor King.

Mayor King demanded Trapp's resignation on Jan 14 after, according to the mayor's charge, he admitted having made the forgeries. Discovery of the auditor's alleged illegal practices was made when the mayor and other city officials checking over the expenses in the light plant for last year became suspicious of apparent excessive charges of the utility engineer. A state examiner was summoned immediately.

CINCINNATI'S HOTEL STRIKE SHORT LIVED

Workers Walk Out at Noon and Settlement Announced Couple Hours Later

By The Associated Press

CINCINNATI April 17—Ben Lash secretary of the Cincinnati Building Service Employes union announced this afternoon that a strike of workers in the hotel Netherlands Plaza had been settled and that strikers would return to work later in the day.

Decision to return to work followed a certain agreement reached, Lash said, at a conference between union officials and officers of the hotel. Terms were not disclosed.

The walkout which started at noon caused hotel executives and clerical help to take their turn at luggage toting and at elevator controls.

Neither the Gibson nor the Sinton hotel reported any strike activity although employes of both were included in the walk-out order effective at noon.

Ben Lash secretary of the Building Service Employes union said about 8,000 men and women were included in the strike call.

Lash said the union's chief demand was recognition by contract and that a 35 per cent wage increase and adjustment of working hours also were involved.

DEPORTEE HELD HERE, HAPPY AT STAY

Happier than when he was an unwilling Marion visitor a week ago today Dr Armgaard Graves, notorious international spy of World war days, is shown in the above International Illustrated News photograph waving happily following an unexpected reprieve that saved him temporarily from deportation. He is shown stepping from a ship in New York a few moments before he was to be deported to Germany. The department of justice ordered the stay after Graves pleaded he would be killed within 24 hours of arriving in his native Germany. Graves was brought to Marion last Saturday to be placed on a New York-bound train with other deporters from western states.

Job Office Here Reports Big Gain in Placements

Increase of 81.6 Per Cent Reported in March Over Same Month Last Year.

An increase of 81.6 per cent in job placements in private industry in Marion last month as compared with March of 1936 and a gain of 86.5 per cent in similar placements for the first three months of this year as of last year are shown in records compared with the same period of the Marion office of the state employment service, Manager Fred P Scheff said today.

The increases are in line with a 72.3 per cent increase in private job placements for the state as a whole in March as compared with the same month of 1936, a report issued by James Wittenbrook, director of the state employment service in Columbus.

Marion private industrial placements totaled 238 as compared with 131 in 1936 and for the first three months of 1937 totaled 682 as compared with 371 in 1936.

For the state as a whole March industrial placements totaled 10,601 as compared with 6,152 a year ago and 26,616 for the first quarter of 1937 as compared with 16,180 in the same period of 1936.

Total placements of all kinds in Marion last month totaled 247, only a few more than the number placed in private industry.

Total job placements for the state as a whole in March recorded a decrease of 17 per cent from March of last year due to the curtailment of WPA and various allied governmental programs, Director Wittenbrook's report showed.

The Marion office had 60 new applications for jobs in March and the state had 11,208 for the same period.

QUICK APPEAL SOUGHT IN PENSION DISPUTE

Security Board Head Seeks Supreme Court Decision During Present Term

By The Associated Press

WASHINGTON April 17—Government officials considered today a quick appeal from the decision of the 1st circuit court of appeals at Boston in [illegible] the social security [illegible] unemployment [illegible] and old age benefits.

Arthur J Altmeyer chairman of the social security board expressed hope the supreme court might decide [illegible] at the present term so that the question [illegible] constitutionality of this important part of the act may be settled.

The court already has under consideration a challenge of the unemployment [illegible] features of the Alabama act. A decision may be announced April 26.

LEADER OF RELIEF MARCHERS FREED

By The Associated Press

COLUMBUS O April 17—Ian Gray 28 Cleveland, one of six relief demonstrators arrested after a group was forcibly ejected from Gov Martin L Davey's office a week ago, was free under $1,000 bond today. Gray, president of the Ohio Workers alliance, was released last night from city prison where four others remain. Leo Monarch 32 of Dayton had been released on $1,500 bond Tuesday night.

COURT BILL HEARING EXTENDED 10 DAYS

Senators Decide To End Testimony April 28 May Close Before Then

By The Associated Press

WASHINGTON April 17—The senate judiciary committee voted today to close hearings on the Roosevelt court bill by April 28.

Attempts to close the hearings immediately failed. The 10-day extension was voted to take care of those already scheduled to testify.

All next week will be given over to opponents of the bill.

Friends of the measure then will be permitted to present closing arguments for the first three days of the following week if they choose. It was possible however that the administration would rest its case and permit the testimony to end next week.

The committee decision coincided with a proposal by Sen McGill, Democrat of Kansas and one of the uncommitted senators holding the balance of power on the committee, that President Roosevelt be allowed to appoint two new supreme court justices if those over 75 do not retire.

Two of the other non-committal committee members—Senators Hatch, Democrat of New Mexico and McCarran, Democrat of Nevada—have offered somewhat similar compromises of the President's proposal to appoint six new members to the court unless justices over 70 withdraw.

NEW PATROL HEAD BEGINS DUTIES HERE

H W Sowers, formerly in charge of the highway patrol station at Warren, arrived here last night to take over a similar position at the Marion substation. Sowers, at the Warren station for the past two years, was replaced there by J M Kratzer, formerly head of Marion's sub-station.

Patrolman Sowers plans to bring his family, Mrs Sowers and two daughters, Shirley Ann and Billie, to Marion later this spring. Other members of the highway patrol station here are W H Haturen, D L Callentine and D D Nicholas.

COUNCIL ACTION RULED LEGAL

Decision Goes Against Former Chief in Test of Abolishment of System.

APPEAL TO BE MADE

Attorney Says New Trial Will Be Sought in Court of Appeals

A test suit questioning the legality of council's abolishment of police pensions on Feb 28 1936 was decided in favor of the city yesterday by Common Pleas Judge Hector S Young in a decision on the action brought by James W Thompson, former police chief.

It was the second time in four weeks Judge Young had upheld council's right to abolish pensions. He ruled on March 18 in the H D Uline suit that council had the right to abolish firemen's pensions.

Judge Young did not give a written opinion in the Thompson case, limiting his decision to a refusal of injunctions sought by Thompson to restrain various officials from halting the operation of the former police pension system.

However he said the issues were virtually the same as in the Uline case and that the decision was based on the same principles as in that case.

Plan Trials in New Court

Attorneys for Thompson and Uline this morning said both cases will be appealed to the third district court of appeals. Complete new trial of the suits will be sought. Grant E Mouser Jr, attorney for Uline, said W P Moloney is counsel for Mr Thompson. The appeals are in line with the announced intentions of state and national associations of firemen and policemen to carry the suits to the highest court if necessary, both actions being regarded as test cases in which the ultimate decision will have widespread effect.

Steps to appeal the cases, Mr Mouser said, are expected as soon as a formal entry is prepared and approved in the Thompson case.

In deciding the Uline case, Judge Young upheld the contention of Ralph E Carhart, city solicitor, that the pensions are gratuities or gifts and that the recipients had no vested rights in them. He also held that it was by authority of city council that the pensions were set up in 1926 and that consequently council would have the right to abolish them.

In neither decision did the court touch on the question of constitutionality of the state statute under which the Marion firemen and policemen pension systems were set up a decade ago. This question was raised by Solicitor Carhart who contended the legislature illegally delegated powers to city council and that council delegated powers to the board of trustees of the pension funds in violation of a provision of the state constitution.

Counsel for Thompson contended the pension system was created by the state legislature, not by city council, and that only the legislature had authority to change or abolish it. He argued that council's part in establishing the pension systems here was limited only to an ordinance declaring the necessity for the founding of the system as set up by the legislature.

Both the Thompson and Uline cases have the backing of state and national associations of firemen and policemen and officers of these groups attended the court hearing of the Uline case.

These groups arranged conferences to plan the test suits shortly after council voted to abolish the pension systems.

The announcement of the Thompson case decision late yesterday followed the filing of a reply brief in the case by Thompson's attorney repeating some of the arguments contained in the first brief and attacking the city solicitor's contention that the state pension act is unconstitutional.

GUILD'S OPENING CONCERT SUNDAY

Bel Canto Singers To Present Program to Public at Presbyterian Church

The public is invited to attend the initial concert of the Bel Canto Opera guild to be presented Sunday night at 8 in the First Presbyterian church. The chorus of 50 trained voices has chosen Mendelssohn's oratorio "The Elijah," for the program.

The guild is made up of singers from Marion, Kenton, Galion, Mt. Vernon, Cardington, Mt. Gilead, Richwood, Chesterville and Caledonia.

Mrs. Frances Long, director of the guild will conduct for the program assisted by Charles Colmer of Prospect, assistant director, Miss Eleanor Barnard, pianist, and Mrs. Victor E Dombaugh, organist.

Dealings Very Quiet With Majority of Issues Clinging to Narrow Rut

By The Associated Press

NEW YORK Apr 17—Mild support appeared for leading stocks in today's market and a number of specialties pushed up substantially.

Dealings were exceptionally quiet even for a Saturday and numerous issues held [in] a restricted area throughout the session. There was an assortment of one [illegible] the close.

Tending to promote a slightly better feeling toward the list was a moderate comeback in some major commodities which suffered a worldwide crash yesterday on European peace moves and rumor of an arms conference among the powers in the near future.

Bolstering stock favorites also were brighter earnings statements and favorable dividend actions.

Coppers leading [illegible] slow retreat drifted to still lower levels.

Transfers were around 450,000 shares.

Many traders remained in neutral territory pending transmission of the President's budget message to congress next week.

Predictions the chief executive will stress economy in his advice to the lawmakers helped lift U S government securities. The bond department [illegible] on loans were uneven.

Those displaying upturns most of the time included N Y Central Allied Chemical American Can Graham Paige at [illegible].

Narrow to off as much as a point or more were Anaconda American Smelting General Electric General Motors Chrysler U S Steel Bethlehem Goodrich and U S Rubber.

Automotive stocks were stalled in view of conjecture regarding a possible boost in car prices this fall. Some quarters suggested a raise was unlikely if a sufficient volume of business develops as anticipated to absorb strike losses, higher wage and greater steel costs.

While building material company shares have been more or less running along with the general market trend holders of these issues were heartened by the report of the F W Dodge Corp indicating residential construction contracts in 37 states east of the Rockies during March were 53 per cent over the same month last year.

Analysts who still adhere to the price times earnings theory in judging stocks noted that in the recent downward readjustment of quoted values many fellow [illegible] receded to levels where they were selling at about or less than 10 times 1936 net income.

SILK PANTS FIND SLIGHT FAVOR HERE

By The Associated Press

WASHINGTON April 17—Rep Everett M Dirksen Republican of Illinois a blunt-spoken son of the middle west voiced caustic comments today at suggestions that American diplomats don knee breeches at the coronation of King George VI.

If our representatives do wear them he snorted "I hope those silk pants split down the seams when they have to genuflect."

STOCKS STAGE WEEK-END DROP

Falling Staples Market Causes Slump Among Wall Street Leaders

By The Associated Press

NEW YORK April 17 — Crumbling commodity prices provided the background for a fall in stocks toward the end of this week.

Grains led the way on the downward path breaking sharply in world markets. The decline in domestic markets was touched off by weakness in foreign centers. It was explained in part by reports of a European move for peace.

This took the edge off the speculative appetite for both grains and other basic staples important to countries preparing for war.

Early in the week the share market moved quietly forward. One reason cited for the rise was that upholding of the Wagner act by the supreme court clarified to some extent the labor situation.

Other factors mentioned in Wall Street as explanations of the advance were cheerful business news and inflationary sentiment in some trading circles.

Important items from the trade and industrial front were hopeful comments by leading executives to stockholders at annual meetings good first quarter earnings reports and a report of record cotton consumption for March.

Meanwhile the routine weekly statistics on steel making electric power production freight car loadings and motor output showed satisfactory gains.

The bond market distinguished itself mainly by the wide rally in U S government issues. Rails put on the brightest performance running forward with the aid of estimated gains in March net operating income.

GRAIN PRICES CLIMB DESPITE FALL ABROAD

Improved Export Demand and Unfavorable Crop Reports Help Rally

CHICAGO April 17—While foreign grain speculative interests continued to unload wheat holdings causing further severe price breaks in Europe North American markets staged a quiet rally today.

Improved export demand for Canadian wheat and scattered unfavorable domestic crop reports helped to stimulate buying of shorts and professionals in Chicago wheat and the upturn here was characterized by some observers as a technical reaction after yesterday s sharp break.

Many traders held the belief that heavy liquidation abroad the past few days has been inspired partly by fear regarding rumors of possible changes in the United States gold policy which have been denied officially.

May corn shot up 1½ cents at one stage within ½ of the day s limit.

Tuberculosis Campaign Carried Before Olney School Group

Behind the Shadows the film which is offered free to any organization in the city or county by the Marion County Anti-Tuberculosis league was shown to members of the Olney Avenue Parent-Teacher association at a meeting Thursday afternoon. Announcement was made of the double feature bill at the Ohio theater next Wednesday, Thursday and Friday which is being sponsored by the nutrition committee of the Marion County Red Cross chapter assisted by the Parent-Teacher associations. Pre-school clinic the week of May 3 was announced.

Mrs L C Lindenberg vice president was in charge of a business session. Miss Luella Scholl principal conducted devotions and led the group in repeating the Lord's Prayer after which she gave a nature reading from the Psalms. Misses Helen Holdridge and Jaynette Vaughan of the faculty sang a duet selection accompanied at the piano by Miss Luella Fenner. Miss Fenner in a report of the Junior Red Cross activities at the school displayed a scrapbook from a chapter in South America and stressed the international friendship which such an exchange between the young people fosters.

Mrs Lindenberg gave a report of the recent district meeting at Elyria after which it was reported that 60 members of the school association are now enrolled in the state and national organizations. Friday April 30 was set as the date for a penny supper. A contribution of $25 toward improving the school playground was announced. Teachers will be in charge of the last meeting of the association on May 20.

7,000 HEAR BANDS AT UPPER SANDUSKY

Line Streets for Afternoon Parade Followed by Concert

Special to The Star

UPPER SANDUSKY April 17—An estimated crowd of 7 000 people lined the streets of Upper Sandusky Friday afternoon as fair weather greeted the eighth annual school band festival activities.

A parade through the streets of the city by the Findlay, Galion, Crestline, Tiffin Junior Order, Carey, Shelby, Bucyrus and Upper Sandusky bands which included over 700 musicians was followed by a massed concert conducted on the court house lawn under the direction of Eugene J Weigel of Ohio State university, Columbus. An evening concert was presented at the Union school auditorium here followed by criticisms by Prof Weigel.

AIMEE'S COURT FIGHT KEEPS NO SECRETS

By The Associated Press

LOS ANGELES April 17—Exhausted attorneys welcomed a recess today in the whirlwind slander suit trial which has swept into court intimate phases of Aimee Semple McPherson's life and the bickerings over control of her Angelus temple

Already the trial has touched upon

Her self reported kidnaping of 1927

Her heated word battles with her mother and daughter

Her rift with a one time associate Rheba Crawford the former angel of Broadway

Her pow wow with Indians

Her Grand Canyon visit on a burro

Even such details as her varying body temperature

And there's more to come

Roberta Semple the evangelist's estranged daughter is suing Attorney Willedd Andrews for $150 000 charging he said she attempted to blackmail her mother at a time when Mrs McPherson was recovering from a serious illness in March 1936

Miss Semple's attorney endeavored to learn the exact state of Mrs McPherson's health then

He cross examined Ella Nordin hefty Scandinavian nurse and intimate of Aimee's for two hours on the point

What was Mrs McPherson's temperature? he asked

Whereabouts? asked the witness Spectators roared before she could add I mean in what city? It changed all the time

Attorney Andrews the defendant took the stand later to recall that the 10 year old kidnaping of Aimee once was hurled at her as a threat

He said Jacob Moidel former temple attorney made the threats Moidel husky red haired former Ohioan was very much in love with Roberta and she with him Aimee testified earlier

NO NEW TAX LIKELY AT THIS SESSION

new taxes appears to be powerful enough to forestall additional levies Sentiment in the house was reflected when the taxation committee voted 14 to 5 to kill a bill to increase the liquid fuel tax a half cent to provide approximately $8 000 000 a year for relief

Although the house passed an income tax bill it went to an almost certain death in the senate Many house members were reported on high authority to have voted for it only because they were convinced it would be killed in the senate

The no new taxes campaign is complicated by a deficit of $5 500 000 incurred by the foundation school program last year Some legislators and school interests hope however that increased revenue from the sales and cigaret taxes part of which goes to the schools will be sufficient to pay the debt

The failure of the house to go along with the senate's two relief bills created animosity between the two branches which may cause their leaders some trouble next week

Gov Davey asked if he would try to break the deadlock which caused the state's relief program to collapse without a substitute replied we will wait until the legislature returns Monday and see if there has been a change in sentiment

Members of the general assembly trudged wearily homeward Friday after one of the stormiest and busiest weeks of the session in which they passed 45 bills

The senate finance committee stayed over a day working on the appropriation bill Despite the contention of some that $10 000 000 could be cut from the measure only $ 3 0 0 was deleted at the end of two committee sessions and one member expressed doubt that more than $500 000 could be trimmed out

Other highlights of the week's legislative session were

The house's commitment of the senate approved $ 000 000 parochial school bill to the education committee which friends of the measure branded the graveyard

The senate's passage of bills to provide free textbooks and transportation to pupils of parochial and private schools

Enactment of laws to expedite the reopening of closed banks to prohibit retail stores from discriminating against Negro customers and to permit the funding over 10 years of scrip and notes such as anticipation of delinquent taxes

Death in the house welfare committee of a $ 0 000 000 relief bill backed by the Ohio Workers Alliance and departure from the city of more than [illegible] relief petitioners who were ejected from the governor's office

OFFICIALS ANSWER ASSESSMENT ACTION

Suit Brought To Prevent Collection of Additional Payments on Road

County Auditor Harry V Mourts and Treasurer Homer D Cole filed an amended answer Saturday in common pleas court to the injunction suit of Harry F Strine of Waldo which is seeking to restrain the county from collecting additional assessments on the Hipsher road improvement near Waldo

Strine filed his suit in January last on behalf of himself and approximately 50 other landowners He asserted the total assessments of $1 117 were to be paid in 16 installments semi annually but that the auditor then Earl F Thomas placed 20 installments on a special duplicate for collection The temporary injunction has been granted but since then several landowners have paid in full until now only about $3 000 remains to be collected

In the amended answer the officials declare Strine is legally unable to deny the validity of the assessments since they were made in 1924 and 1923 long before the suit was filed They also state that Strine knew the work was being done and that he and other land owners would be assessed for it

Kenneth A Robinson of the law firm of Wilhelm & Robinson represents the county in place of Prosecuting Attorney Paul D Michel whose firm began the suit for Strine before Mr Michel became prosecutor

RAILROAD WALKOUT DELAYED OUT WEST

8 500 Southern Pacific Employes Decide To Leave Issue Up to U S Board

By The Associated Press

Postponement of a strike of 8 500 railroad employes a prospective agreement in a dispute involving 3 700 automotive workers and the possibility of a broader understanding between capital and labor brightened the troubled industrial horizon today

Less than two hours before the strike deadline firemen and trainmen brotherhoods called off a proposed walkout on the Southern Pacific railway A federal mediation board will study the unions complaints which included charges the railroad violated past agreements

RUMANIANS GUARD AGAINST NAZI COUP

By The Associated Press

BUCHAREST Rumania April 17—The Rumanian government fearing a pro-Nazi coup was ready for any eventuality today as political repercussions of the banishment of ex Prince Nicholas created tension throughout the nation

Officials were apprehensive that the banned rightist Iron Guard angered because its representatives were not consulted before Nicholas was exiled for refusing to renounce his commoner wife might challenge the government

In a special session the cabinet authorized the government to repress with the strongest measures any political disturbances fostered by the Iron Guard

Tension in the capital was partially relieved by the release of Prof Alexander Gerota who publicly opposed the government's action stripping Nicholas of his royal rank Gerota was released from jail pending trial

UNCERTAINTY MARKS FORD, UNION BATTLE

U A W Leader Quoted as Planning NLRB Hearing but Report Is Denied

By The Associated Press

DETROIT April 17—Ed Hall vice president of the United Automobile Workers of America was quoted today as saying charges might be filed with the national labor relations board against the Ford Motor Co but a Ford official said he believed Hall had changed his mind

Hall had said the contemplated charges would be based upon the beating of two Kansas City union members employes of the Ford plant there

That was a fight among their own gang the Ford official said and Hall knows it now

In Oshawa, Ont Homer Martin president of the U A W A declared that we will have Henry Ford definitely on the run by Monday He also mentioned charges to be filed with the labor board but declined to discuss their nature Martin was in Oshawa in connection with a strike of General Motors of Canada employes

The Ford official said Martin had no basis for his assertion

The U A W A intensified its campaign to enroll Ford workers following the supreme court's upholding of the Wagner national labor relations act which provides that a labor organization having a majority of the workers shall be the collective bargaining agency

We have organized several thousand Ford workers already declared Walter Reuther president of the local union whose area includes the main Ford plant in suburban Dearborn The west side local already has a sufficient base in the Ford plant to ensure a permanent and lasting organization

In an interview following the court decision Ford said his employes were free to join anything but repeated his statement that it was foolish to join a union

Capital, Labor Answer Perkins Call to Parley

Willard of B & O Chester of Manufacturers Group and Lewis of CIO Will Attend

By The Associated Press

WASHINGTON April 17—Secretary Perkins counted 9 acceptances today from leaders of labor and industry to a conference Tuesday on problems of collective bargaining between employers and workers

The latest to accept were Daniel Willard president of the Baltimore & Ohio C M Chester chairman of the National Association of manufacturers and John L Lewis head of the Committee for Industrial Organization

Still to be heard from was President William Green of the American Federation of Labor Office associates said they did not know whether he expected to attend

The meeting is an outgrowth of supreme court validation of the Wagner act which guarantees to workers the right of collective bargaining

One official of the national labor relations board which administers the act said the members felt rather keenly the fact that Miss Perkins had called such a conference without consulting the board

The board he said always was willing to discuss with employers the methods of compliance with the Wagner act and even had considered arranging a conference to thresh out collective bargaining problems

Labor department officials said the conference was not called with any thought of infringing on the field of the labor board

No definite agenda had been drafted

Miss Perkins said the conference was called with the long range view of stabilizing industrial relations under the Wagner act by drawing on the experiences of labor leaders and industrialists who have handled wage and hour bargaining negotiations

The United States Chamber of Commerce said the supreme court did not hold in the Wagner decisions that congress could regulate manufacturing operations in regard to hours of work wages paid or any other such matter

The chamber expressed this interpretation in its Washington Review

On the contrary it said regarding wages and hours the court said unanimously in the companion railroad case decided on March 29 that its decision of 25 years ago still stands to the effect that in entering into contracts of employment railroads act in the same private capacity as any other employer and congress can not fix the terms of contracts of employment merely because the employer is engaged in interstate commerce

This summary said rights of employers which were not mentioned in the decisions undoubtedly continue

An example is the right to limit access to premises to employes it said.

Willard and Averill Harriman chairman of Union Pacific will give the railroads representation at the conference

Walter C Teagle of Standard Oil William Bye general counsel for the Carnegie Illinois Steel Corp Charles O'Neill president of the Central Pennsylvania Coal Producers association and Clarence Wooley of the American Radiator Co will be present

Your Health

BY DR. R. S COPELAND

Children's Ailments

There is a popular idea that growing pains are a normal occurrence in the lives of young children. In fact many mothers resent the suggestion that this symptom may be a sign of some physical disturbance and that it must always be regarded as a danger signal.

It is a pity that anybody should hesitate to accept what the medical world regards as a scientific fact. Only recently a careful restudy of the problem revealed that the experience commonly called growing pains is in reality evidence of an inflammation of the muscles or joints usually caused by acute rheumatic fever.

Of course this does not mean that all children who are afflicted with pains of this nature are sufferers from rheumatic fever. It is quite possible that the irritation and inflammation may be the result of absorbing toxins or poisons. They originate in some focus or center of infection such as infected tonsils nasal sinuses adenoids or other structures or organs of the body.

Every parent should know that the growing and active child is apt to complain of many vague pains and discomforts. But if the discomfort is definitely localized and persist it is unwise to dismiss it as unimportant and nothing but growing pain. Indeed it is dangerous to ignore this warning.

Altogether too many parents look upon this warning sign as a trivial affair. If the pain is due to rheumatic fever it is most important that the disease be recognized as soon as possible. When the disease is recognized early and the necessary medical measures are taken serious complications can be prevented.

Another way of preventing this and other trouble is by having the child report to the doctor for periodic health examinations. Modern medical science has made tremendous strides in the prevention of certain disorders of childhood. But these ailments can only be taken care of by early recognition and medical supervision.

Let me warn my readers against many of the exploded beliefs regarding the health of children. Despite our advancement in science many of these superstitions still persist. Your neighbors means well of course when he advises you but science is better equipped to advise about how to prevent and cure disease.

OHIO ADJUTANTS GENERAL

The office of adjutant general must have been looked upon in the early days of the state as a position of great dignity and responsibility. In the first 25 years of Ohio's history a man served in that office who was afterward elected to the office of governor. A little later a former adjutant general was elected to represent the Ohio state in the upper house of congress.

Thomas Worthington governor from 1814 to 1818 held the office of adjutant general in 1807 1809.

The United States senator who had held the office of adjutant general was Joseph Kerr. He served in 1809 and 1810.

Chief Warns Children Against Playing in Streets

Police Chief Marks today issued a warning to Marion youngsters against unsafe practices which he said create a hazardous traffic situation in the city.

Playing baseball or roller skating in the street are two major hazards to motorists and children especially in the spring season he pointed out. All members of the police department have been instructed to confiscate the equipment of youngsters who follow such practices and in extreme cases the children will be cited to appear before Juvenile Judge Oscar Gast Chief Marks said.

Another unsafe practice he said is that of two persons riding on a bicycle. Numerous complaints from throughout the city have been received in regard to children playing in the street and the police department will make every effort to curb the practice, Marks said.

WOMAN IS GUILTY OF FRAUD CHARGE

Judge Suspends 30 Day Sentence When Bills Are Paid

Charges of fraud filed against Mrs Blanche Hiwan alias Mrs Blanche Henry 33 were heard yesterday in municipal court while a similar charge against Oscar Henry who was taken into custody by police at the same time was dismissed on a motion of the prosecution.

Mrs Hiwan or Henry against whom separate fraud charges were filed by managers of two Marion service stations was found guilty of the charge filed by N J Rimer manager of a gasoline station at Main and Columbia streets. He accused her of driving away from his station without paying for two gallons of gasoline.

The woman was given a 30-day sentence to the county jail which together with the costs of the case was suspended upon the settlement of both claims against her and under the condition that she leave town. The second charge against her was filed by J I Case manager of a service station at 589 Silver street who accused her of obtaining 17 gallons of gasoline and a quart of oil without paying for them at his station April 9.

The Henrys former residents of Toledo avenue were moving to Columbus when the incident which caused their arrest occurred. Their arrests were made in Delaware after a description had been sent to police there. The description was broadcast after the pair allegedly drove away from the Rimer station last Monday without paying for the two gallons of gasoline.

MARION GIRLS IN GLEE CLUB TO SING HERE SUNDAY

Above is the girls glee club of Otterbein College at Westerville which will be heard in a concert Sunday night at the First United Brethren church. The Marion appearance will mark the opening of the club's annual spring tour.

Two of the singers are daughters of the pastor and his wife Rev and Mrs Carl V Roop. Miss Leah Roop is seated fourth from the left and Miss Della Roop is fifth from the left in the back row.

The club and the director Professor Spessard will come to Marion late Sunday afternoon and will be dinner guests of the young people of the church at the community house. Following the concert which will be free to the public members of the church will be hosts to the girls overnight and for breakfast. Monday morning the club will leave for a concert at night in Akron.

Lessons from Nature

A SERMONETTE

By REV H C AHRENS

Pastor the Salem Evangelical and Reformed Church

"Stand still and consider the wondrous works of God" Job 37 14

ONE of the most beautiful sights of our city is the Harding memorial on a clear moonlight night. As the bright rays of a full moon reflect the light of the sun upon the white marble they also reveal the glory of God's Son as he smiles upon a devoute observer. He is reminded of the words of the Psalmist "The heavens declare the glory of God and the firmament showeth his handiwork" (Ps 19 1). His thoughts go beyond this scene in nature to that beautiful city of God with its jasper walls and streets of gold. A city with many mansions, a city which has no need of the sun neither of the moon to shine in it for the glory of God lightens it and the lamb is the light thereof (Rev 21 23).

Again as we travel the highways or walk through the residential sections of our city and behold the first flowers of spring making their debut the words of Jesus come to our mind "Consider the lilies of the field how they grow, they toil not neither do they spin yet I say unto you that even Solomon in all his glory was not arrayed like one of these. But if God doth so clothe the grass of the field which today is and tomorrow is cast into the oven shall he not much more clothe you O ye of little faith?" (Matt 6 28-30)

Listen to the red bird as he sings to his mate. Observe how cooperatively and peacefully a pair of birds go about building their new home and rear their young. An object lesson for our modern society. Stand still and consider the wonderous works of God and you will hear our Lord say "Behold the birds of the heaven that they sow not neither do they reap nor gather into barns and your heavenly Father feedeth them. Are not ye of much more value than they?" (Matth 6 26)

Unfortunately as the Master Sower sows the seed either by word or object lessons much seed falls on the wayside or on rocky places even today. The salvation of society however will be accomplished only by those as in an honest and good heart having heard the word hold it fast and bring forth fruit with patience.

Stand still with Job and consider the wonderous works of God. Consider with A W Bomberger that

There's a part of the sun in an apple
There's a part of the moon in a rose
There's a part of the flowing Pleiades
In every leaf that grows
Out of the vast comes nearness
For the God whose love we sing
Sends a little of His heaven
To every living thing

CHURCH CELEBRATION PROGRAM ARRANGED

Rev C L Allen To Direct Three Year Evangelical Church Observance

Process of preparing a three year program to celebrate the centennial of the Ohio conference of the Evangelical church started in Marion this week with a committee meeting at the Calvary church.

Rev C L Allen district superintendent of the [illegible]estern district of the conference and a former pastor of Calvary church is head of the committee which includes Rev J W Heininger Calvary pastor as secretary and Dr F A Firestone of Bellevue.

The three-year program will be launched at the 193[illegible] session of the Ohio conference Aug 25-29 at Grace church in Canton and will culminate in the centennial session in August of 1940.

According to the committee's outline prepared this week the program will embody five major objectives: A vitalization of personal religious experience and heightening of conceptions of membership in the church, a Farther with Christ evangelistic and missionary crusade, a general enlistment in Christian stewardship for all of life, a larger content and more thorough interest in the program of Christian education and a worthy culmination in spiritual achievement in 1940.

Murderer in Death Ro[illegible] Turns Prison Evangel[illegible]

Work of Mrs H Edmund Hill Wins Reward at Penitentiary

Through the tireless devotion of Mrs H Edmund Hill of West Co[illegible] [illegible] in her religious work among men of the Ohio penitentiary [illegible] men in death row [illegible] was possessed [illegible] the demon of murder has become one of the evangelists in the block in which he is imprisoned according to a letter received [illegible] this week from a [illegible].

The Hill[illegible] woman [illegible] the [illegible] admitted to death row conducted Good Friday services [illegible] and conducted [illegible] has [illegible] against the offer of Christ and a future life.

Because he was one of the men who attempted a break shortly before he was deprived of his privileges and therefore has been deprived of the Bible Mrs Hill had been able to get for him through an appeal to Marion residents.

[illegible] impression of the Good Friday service that he has turned evangelist and according to the writer of the letter has been quite successful at it since three of the boys have been very much impressed with his evangelistic qualities and as a result has started on the straight and narrow trail.

"I am afraid that if you do not make another trip here in the very near future he will have most of you[illegible] work done," the writer continued.

Something of the regard in which the men hold Mrs Hill is expressed in the closing paragraph.

"The boys all say to tell you that they hope this finds you fine and dandy and for you to take things as easy as possible and in the [illegible] doubt it will be a pleasant surprise to you to know that all the boys here [illegible] are insisting that I [illegible] right (last Sunday) and [illegible] know that as they [illegible] church services this [illegible] had happy memories of those memories [illegible] comment on you from me. In fact you were the chief of discussion on the great one day and basing [illegible] upon all the nice things said about you I can [illegible] that the boys will be glad to see you again [illegible]."

The Bible for the [illegible] been sent to the [illegible] with other literature said and will be given [illegible] the officials as soon as [illegible] leges are restored.

Songs

IN ONE of the old [illegible] books there was a little number that ran thusly Twenty froggies went to school Down beside a rushy pool etc etc Maybe the pupils were a[illegible] or perhaps they were getting their first lesson in nature study [illegible] know [illegible] But whatever it was when teacher called that page everybody found it in less than a split second opened their mouths wide straightened back their shoulders and gave forth all Our guess is that they sang because they liked the song for it had a lilting rhythm that just naturally would be tagged as swing in this modern music day and the [illegible] thing about it all twenty little sets of green twenty [illegible] white and [illegible] that made one want to sing whether he could or not And this cut [illegible] and girls is all because of something I read recently about frogs or rather their little cousins the Bufo americanus (Toads to you and me)

* * *

Helpers

AND by the way if you are a gardener and don't have a little Bufo americanus on your [illegible] of assistants by all means get one without waiting another minute They are [illegible] to my informant [illegible] gift to the gardener Next to [illegible] the robin the warty little feller is your best friend when it comes to putting an end to insects [illegible] or any other best [illegible] How does he do it? Here's how The tongue of a toad is fastened in front and folded back into the mouth When it is thrust out and drawn back quickly it snaps up the insect and as the tongue is coated with a sticky substance the victim is held securely upon it and has little chance to escape And so when Mr Toad comes to your house make him welcome give him every assurance of safety and keep him happy and contented by tossing him such tidbits as a few fat angleworms or a bit of cornbread He'll [illegible] real chummy too and when sufficiently encouraged will learn to come when he is called

Sarah

A FEW columns ago we chronicled a list of women's names and their meaning Not that we were just too modest but we didn't happen to run onto either of our own names but a note to our desk this week proves that some one else did It's someone in the know for she chose Sarah and she signs herself Slim Well here goes Slim Sarah (my princess) the half sister and wife of Abraham God changed her name to Sarah (princess) signifying that she was not to be the princess of Abraham only but of the race which should be born of her She became the mother of Isaac when 90 years old She died when he was 36 years of age and was buried in the cave of Machpelah at Hebron Thanks heaps for the clipping

UTILITY ROOM AS HOME LAUNDRY

A basement was considered an essential in the house of a generation ago Modern home equipment has largely eliminated the reasons why basements were considered necessary The utility room containing the heating unit and usually the laundry of the modern home saves many steps for the housewife It is more readily kept clean than the basement.

GRADED LUMBER ASSURES QUALITY

Dependable lumber is essential in providing a substantial framework for a dwelling Lumber is graded in accordance with quality and quality being determined by the number of knots cracks sap pockets and other imperfections The fewer of these the better the grade

Dryness is essential in lumber as the less moisture it contains the less the amount of shrinkage after the building is thoroughly [illegible] out

COPPER-BOUND ROOF ENDS STORM WORRY

Wind weather and severe storms always have been the mortal enemies of any roof But with the copper bound Ford roofing shingles sold and applied by the Superior Roofing Co of North State street the tide of battle turns strongly in favor of the home owner

Scarcely a home owner has escaped having portions of his roof torn away or had leaks developed when the elements get rough And with a roof applied in the ordinary manner there was little he could do to prevent it But with Ford's copper bound shingles a roof can be made safe and immune from storms because the shingles are clinched in on the housetop with strong machine-driven copper staples

PANELING POSSIBLE FOR SMALL HOUSES

Wood as a finish for the inner walls of houses has until recently been considered a luxury possible only for the large income

A new process of cutting wood now brings this desirable finish within the reach of the owners of the less expensive homes The veneer paneling can be applied over old plaster walls or on new construction

Strips for trim around doors and windows and molding to match the wood of the walls are available

New Equipment Added for Repair and Maintenance of Autos and Trucks

With the establishment of its business in a new West Center street location the Jennings Service is in a position to give quicker service on the type of automobile and truck repairs in which it specializes. The Jennings Service now is located at 442 West Center street, in the west section of a new building recently constructed on the site of the Fleet Wing service station

In addition to better facilities for turning out its work the firm also has added several items of new equipment that enables it to handle work not previously done Chief among these is a wheel straightener that trues up any wood steel disc or wire wheel no matter how badly bent or sprung

The firm now offers motorists and truck owners four principal services—wheel straightening, a complete brake service including testing and drum truing, frame and axle straightening and wheel alignment.

While brake testing equipment has been operated by the firm for several years an entirely new type of machine has been installed at the West Center street location This machine tests pressure on brake drums under actual road conditions. In making a test the machine is driven onto a platform at any desired speed and the brakes applied As the brakes engage against the wheel drums the exact pressure on each wheel is recorded on a dial There are no motors to turn wheels against the tires as in other types of testers By the use of this machine the Jennings mechanics can adjust the brakes so that the same pressure is applied on each wheel thereby eliminating the danger of grabbing and sideways when brakes are applied suddenly

Another important feature of the service offered by the Jennings shop is wheel alignment The shop is equipped with tools for aligning wheels on cars using the conventional front axle or independent suspension Excessive tire wear hard steering and shimmy are eliminated when wheels are properly aligned and those three things usually are the first indication of improper alignment

The true drum lathe is another important item in the shop's equipment The device corrects out of round drums that cause jumpy brakes and removes scores from the drum that result in excessive wear of brake bands

For axle and frame straightening the Jennings Service used the Bear Cat equipment by which bent parts can be returned to their proper shape and alignment without removal from the car or the use of heat

The Jennings Service has been a Marion establishment for 10 years Formerly located on North State street between the Erie and Big Four railroad tracks the move to the present location was made after several months in the Haberman Chevrolet Co building

Harold Jennings is office manager and his brother Ralph Jennings is service manager

CERTIFIED SYSTEM USED BY STATION

Preparation of automobiles for summer driving exactly as recommended by the manufacturer is one of the features of the service offered by the Max Caulkins Hi Speed Service station at Church and High streets

Hi Speed certified lubrication removes the guess work from work of this type and assures the correct grade of lubricants in transmission differential and all other units As station attendants go over the car every point is checked and double checked to make sure nothing is missed High pressure lubricating equipment assures lubricants over all moving parts

Stage Set for Major League Openers Monday, Tuesday

OFFICIALS EXPECT BANNER YEAR FOR NATIONAL PASTIME

Athletics-Senators and Phillies-Bees Contests To Start Season Monday

BY SID FEDER
Associated Press Writer

NEW YORK April 17—From New York's champions to Philadelphia's last placers it looks like a banner year for big league baseball

The injury jinx is striking the only sour note in opening day by keeping key men out of several lineups for the getaway program Monday and Tuesday

Otherwise those who direct play and second guess the national pastime are convinced the 1937 campaign will go down in the books among the top years competitively financially and from all other angles

They feel that the diamond machinery will be in high gear from the time President Roosevelt gets the Athletics Senators game under way in Washington Monday and the Phillies and Bees go to work in a pair of patriots day contests in Boston until the final out next September—and that the faithful will respond accordingly

Some 250 000 fans may be on deck for the double opener with a seven game schedule Tuesday following Monday's curtailed program The biggest crowd a looked for 50 000 or so is expected at the New York Yankees stadium where the world champions entertain their perennial headaches the Senators Another good sized gathering is almost certain for the renewal of the National league's hottest rivalry the Giants and Dodgers in Brooklyn

Joe DiMaggio key man of the Yanks will be out for two weeks recovering from a tonsillectomy Tex Carleton No 1 Cubs pitcher will be lost for a month with a chipped right elbow bone Jimmy Foxx is in a hospital indefinitely, suffering from a sinus condition Pitchers Tommy Bridges of the Tigers and Lefty Grove of the Red Sox are ailing and Stu Martin St Louis Cardinals infielder hasn't completely recovered from his appendicitis operation All are members of clubs figuring strongly in the pennant chases and without them things may be changed completely for those outfits

As matters now stand the Yankees featuring the same heavy duty artillery that took both the American league and World Series apart in 36 look like a shoo-in for the pennant again—but certainly not by the 19½ game margin of a year ago The Tigers with Mickey Cochrane and Hank Greenberg back on the firing line and the Indians with rookie Bob Feller biggest freshman pitching sensation in years a potential 15 or 20-game winner furnish the top threats

In the National league the Cardinals are favored—but you can't make a lot of observers believe it There appear too many ifs in St Louis particularly in a comparatively new infield and a pitching staff that was shot full of holes a year ago

As a result Bill Terry's Giants defending the pennant loom as strong as any with a remade infield no worse than the championship lineup of last year a well rounded pitching staff and a slugging outfield The Chicago Cubs and the Pittsburgh Pirates look from this corner like the teams Terry Troup will have to beat to keep the flag

Cincinnati's hustling Reds young and full of fight have a fine chance to crack the first division

Prospect Wins Dual Track Meet With Morral Team

Prospect High school's track team swept to a 80 to 28 victory over the visiting Morral High squad in a dual meet on the Prospect track yesterday afternoon Baird of Prospect was the individual star of the meet scoring a total of 21 points—three firsts in the 120-yd low hurdles 440 yd dash and 880 yd run and a pair of seconds in the shot put and discus

Several of the county high school records were threatened Jones of Prospect turned the mile in 5 min 10 3 seconds which is within 8 4 seconds above the present county mark made by Henderson of Pleasant in the 1935 county track meet Ferguson of Morral turned in the fast time of 21 6 for the 220 yd dash which is but 5 of a second over the county record of 21 1 made in last year's county meet by Karody of Aposia

Bumgartner of Prospect came within a narrow margin of bettering the javelin throw record when he chalked up a mark of 111 4½ in That mark is just one fourth of an inch shy of the record 111 ft 5 in set in 1931 by Gray of Caledonia

Points in the dual meet were scored on the basis of five for first place three for second and one for third Results of each event with the winning time or distance follows 100 yd dash—Ferguson of Morral Jordan and Dodrill of Prospect 11 2 sec 120 yd low hurdles—Baird J Ellis DeWolfe all of Prospect 17 7 sec 220-yd dash—Ferguson of Morral Jordon and Dodrill of Prospect 21 6 sec 440 yd dash—Baird and W Ellis of Prospect Cayton of Morral 57 9 sec 880-yd run Baird R Jones and W Ellis all of Prospect 2 min 10 1 sec mile run—Jones Deeds and J Ellis all of Prospect 5 min 10 3 sec pole vault—Bumgartner and Deeds of Prospect Cochran of Morral 8 ft 9 in high jump—Schultz of Morral J Ellis of Prospect Ferguson of Morral 5 ft 4 in shot put—Long and Baird of Prospect Gibbs of Morral 38 ft 3½ in discus—Long Baird and Bumgartner of Prospect 97 ft 2 in broad jump—Jordan of Prospect Ferguson of Morral Dodrill of Prospect 18 ft 7½ in javeline throw Bumgartner and Long of Prospect McWhorter of Morral 111 ft 4½ in 880 yard relay won by Prospect team of McWhorter DeWolfe Bumgartner and Dodrill in 1 min 4 8 sec

CHILLED FANS SEE 4 AMERICAN ASS'N TEAMS IN OPENERS

Brews Beat Saints, Minneapolis Trims Kansas City, Red Birds Play Today

By The Associated Press

CHICAGO April 17 — The Milwaukee Brewers may have been hard hit by winter deals but don't sell them short this American Association season

The Brewers who won the 1936 title cleaned up impressively in the playoffs and then took the Little World Series from the Buffalo Bisons opened the American Association's 36th campaign with a flourish yesterday defeating the highly touted St Paul Saints 10 to 5

Almost 9 000 chilled fans watched Al Milnar Brewer southpaw go the route holding Gabby Street's men to nine hits Milwaukee which lost such stars as Rudy York and Chet Laabs to the Detroit Tigers produced an attack good for 13 hits one of them a homer by Otto Bluege Vernon Washington hit two circuit smashes for the Saints

Joe Morrissey shortstop led the St Paul offense with three hits in five trips while Bill Brenzel had the same average for the Brewers

Minneapolis staged a six run rally in the third to whip Kansas City in another inaugural tilt 8 to 3 before 13 821 paid customers Ralph Kress former major league star belted a long homer with two on in the Millers big third frame which drove Lee Stine to the showers Walter Tauscher allowed the Blues nine hits

Heinie Schulte Blues second baseman handled 17 chances flawlessly and the Millers young outfielder Spence singled on his first three trips to the plate and made a great catch of Schulte's short fly to end the game

At Louisville the Colonels took a 11 to 0 drubbing from the surprising Toledo Mud Hens George Coffman speedy righthander from Beaumont of the Texas league allowed the Louisville club only four hits all in different innings Six Colonel errors helped the Mud Hen cause

Columbus and Indianapolis open their campaigns today at Indianapolis

CARDS SWAMP PORTSMOUTH

By The Associated Press

PORTSMOUTH O April 17—St Louis pitchers scattered seven hits as the Cardinals swamped their Portsmouth farm team of the Mid Atlantic league 11 to 0 here yesterday

Seven thousand persons a record for the local park attended the game and saw the local team crack wide open in the seventh inning and let the Cards score six runs off Johnny Maher

Don Padgett and Don Gutteridge hit home runs Dizzy Dean pinch hit for John Chambers in the sixth with the bases loaded and two out but drove a fly to deep center

TRIBE, GIANTS NEAR END OF TOUR SERIES

By The Associated Press

NEW YORK April 17 — Earl Whitehill American league pitching veteran was primed for a nine inning test when the Cleveland Indians invaded the Polo Grounds today for their penultimate grapefruit circuit clash against the New York Giants

The Indians took a 9-7 edge in the series with a slashing 8 to 4 victory yesterday at Charlotte N C and assured themselves of at least a tie since the barnstorming tour ends here tomorrow

The inter-league rivals spring series have finished in draws the last two campaigns

Hal Trosky punched out a home run a double and a brace of singles to lead the Clevelanders triumph after Denny Galehouse native Ohioan got off to a shaky start

BRADDOCK TO SHIFT CAMP TO CHICAGO

By The Associated Press

CHICAGO April 17—James J Braddock world heavyweight champion will start doing roadwork in Chicago's Lincoln park tomorrow in preparation for his bout June ? with Joe Louis

The champion was due from Minneapolis after leaving a north woods camp at Stone Lake Wis where he did light training but was prevented from accomplishing much roadwork because of inclement weather

Selection of a permanent camp where Braddock will begin boxing workouts has been deferred until Tuesday when his manager Joe Gould is expected to arrive from New York

Softball Entry Deadline Moved to Next Saturday

Tonight's deadline for entry in the 1937 organized softball leagues has been extended for one week it was announced this morning by Elmer Shaw secretary of the softball commission The extension he said was especially granted for the convenience of Sunday school softball aggregations who tomorrow will have opportunity to discuss plans for entering the city's leagues

One month from today on Monday May 17 the 1937 softball season is to get underway with teams of Sunday School league No 1 battling each other in the opening games The following night Sunday School league No 2 will be in action and on Thursday night of the same week the Industrial loop will get its first taste of action for the summer season A fourth league upon which no eligibility restrictions have been placed will be in action each Friday night starting the same week.

Entry in any of the leagues may be made by filing with the commission secretary Elmer Shaw a certified roster of the players and the entrance fee of $15 Until yesterday only one squad the Drake Tavern team had officially filed its entry blank Others however have already signified their intentions of entering the various leagues by obtaining entry blanks at the Y M C A.

Although the softball commission has not yet adopted regulations designed to stamp out early season forfeits and postponements the practice which led to considerable trouble among players and fans last season will be discouraged this year The commission discussed only briefly the practice of forfeiting and postponing games at its meeting last week and it was decided to take some action at its next meeting in an effort to assure the playing of games on schedule

Commission members probably will meet in a called session shortly after the new deadline next Saturday is reached A big task will be before them when the rosters of the various leagues any suspected cases of ineligibility and minor questions come before the governing body

Holding It Down

Last January the country was told in the executive's annual message on the budget that beginning with July 1937 income and expense would be approximately even. Hope was held out furthermore for a surplus in the fiscal year beginning July 1 1938.

These estimates were based on some big IF'S. If nothing unexpected happened, if relief expenditures declined and if private employment picked up the United States would be out of the red in 1938. The statement was called unduly hopeful at the time.

The country now is informed by means of an executive order to department heads to hold down expenses that expenses will have to be held down to keep the deficit for the current year anywhere near its estimated size. It is officially feared the deficit may be far greater than $2,[illegible],000,000 estimate named in the report last January. In other words the bad news is being broken gently.

For the year beginning next July 1 therefore it does not seem advisable to hope for much. Unemployment is not cutting into relief rolls as deeply as it was expected to. Income apparently has been overestimated. Expense is continuing to balloon upward.

A balanced budget in the next fiscal year doesn't seem likely. A surplus in the fiscal year beginning July 1 1938 might still materialize but in all likelihood the country will be lucky to achieve even a balance by that time. The millennium is receding into the 1940s.

It is the tendency of governmental expense always to be higher than estimates. It is the tendency of the population always to hope for a more favorable outcome than can be shown when the fiscal year ends. It is the tendency of politicians always to paint as rosy a picture as possible until the money begins to run out then to paint it as black (i.e. red) as possible.

Mr Roosevelt who has just expressed concern for the first time over the way things are going, apparently has decided now is the time to get out the black paint (i.e. red ink).

The Skeptic

There's one fellow in every crowd who takes delight in being skeptical. That's what Henry Ford always has been to his industry.

He has stuck up for his ideas even when it meant having his ears pinned back by the jibes of the multitude. Sometimes he was right, sometimes wrong, but his ears never stayed pinned back very long.

So there's nothing surprising in the fact that when almost everyone else is sighing "Amen" to the CIO gospel of salvation through unionism Mr Ford is snapping "Oh nuts" and doing his best to pick a fight.

He's always been that way—different. Plainly he's not going to stop now even if it means becoming a target for every loud mouth with access to a microphone. Maybe he remembers that when everyone else was romping down the aisles to be saved by the grace of the blue eagle he remained a heathen and never was struck down for his obstinacy.

Of course the new deal politicians and the other evangelists of universal unionism are going to work themselves into a red rage and thump Mr Ford with their oratorical wands like nobody's business. He knows that and doesn't care.

What good can come of it? Maybe it's worth remembering that if a thing's faultless no skeptic can hurt it and that if it isn't faultless an honest skeptic can do it a lot of good. Unionists who have turned skeptical about labor's ability to bargain effectively with employers without organization shouldn't object too hotly to Mr Ford's cool assertion that organization isn't all it's cracked up to be either.

Every Man a Champ

Golfers aren't going to let Gene Sarazen scare them with his wild talk about courses that haven't kept step with the forward march of skill and equipment. No, in April anyway.

In the next month as they invade the fairways and greens again golfers expect to discover that par is still too many strokes below their best scores and that's why they'll keep playing all summer. Sarazen's claim that par is too high and that the courses are getting too easy won't make sense to the dubs.

Every one of them hopes some day to equal par. That's what keeps them going. If their goal were to be moved back before they got within driving distance it would break their spirit. Sarazen probably means that golf won't be any fun when any good player can break par at will but he's forgetting something. It isn't champions who pay the freight for the nation's golf industry but hundreds of thousands of awkward fellows who keep coming back for more because they don't want to admit the thing has 'em licked.

Even Court Battle Has Humor

BY DAVID LAWRENCE
(Copyright 1937 by The Marion Star)

WASHINGTON April 17—[illegible]

[illegible] Washington had never before [illegible] able words [illegible]

[illegible] down [illegible] in the nat[illegible] happen [illegible] and that the federal government had no power to intervene.

Senator Wagner Changes

Second visible [illegible] number two Senator Wagner of New York speaking in the senate in February 1933 said that the question which had troubled the American people since the Eighteenth amendment was added to the Constitution was not at all concerned with liquor but was a question of government—how to restore the constitutional balance of power and authority in our federal system which had been upset by national prohibition. He then uttered these significant sentences: "No single national standard can prevail. At the bedrock of this entire question lies the immovable truth that there is nothing the Constitution can say, nothing the federal government can do which will successfully impose a rule of conduct upon a community except by the will of the people of that community."

And yet th[illegible] the national labor relations act fails to comprehend within its [illegible] a [illegible] of [illegible] days [illegible] on a [illegible] that [illegible] majority [illegible] and go unpunished [illegible] authority.

[illegible] further three [illegible] radio address in 1933 said "When [illegible] under the Eighteenth [illegible] the rights of [illegible] the particular subject [illegible] the mass of [illegible] trouble of other problems of [illegible] such as the [illegible] of agriculture, of education [illegible] welfare and of a dozen other important features. In these Washington [illegible] encouraged to interfere."

Witness now the last three years of legislation in every one of these fields which now have been declared by Mr Roosevelt to be pressing national problems.

For the national Democratic platform of 1932 [illegible] against federal intervention in many things and called for state action. But Chairman Jim Farley [illegible] that conditions changed between June 1932 when the platform was adopted and March 1933 when Mr Roosevelt was inaugurated. He didn't [illegible] changed but it amounts to the same thing.

A number of other instances can be cited to show that Mr Roosevelt has himself favored a realistic approach that is taking the facts as they come up from time to time and making national policy in accordance with the way things shape up at the time. Can Justice Roberts be blamed then if prior to January 1937 he shared the view of so many other judges in our federal system that membership in a labor union was not a direct effect upon interstate commerce and if during the months of January, February and March he was given a liberal education in how interstate commerce can be tied up by a small group of union workers inside a plant with operations suspended at key points so as to paralyze the whole business of a large scale producer?

Obliged By Oath

Mr Justice Roberts is obliged by his oath to reach conclusions through personal convictions and not by the suasion of others on the supreme court. His vote doesn't swing the court. It takes five votes to make a decision and there was no such division in many other important cases so frequently overlooked by the Roosevelt administration in its desire to get control of the work of the justices.

If there is anything more uncertain than the language of legal opinions whether of federal or state courts or both it is the language of political addresses especially in the national government. It rarely happens that supreme court justices swing from one group to the other when the court decides but it is a customary happening to see political government including the President and members of congress in the Republican as well as the Democratic parties reverse themselves presumably in the public interest.

Maybe Justice Roberts has a sense of humor and likes football too. Looking about him he might well have come to the conclusion that the White House sets the styles nowadays in governmental affairs so that when facts or conditions change he need not feel bound by prior opinions. Certainly to criticize Justice Roberts for inconsistency is to deprive the President himself of his principal metaphor namely that he is a quarterback and doesn't know what play he will call next.

The Ice Has Been Broken

A basketful of notions about what goes on at annual stockholders meetings has been tipped over by the Bethlehem Steel Corp fracas widely reported in Wednesday's newspapers.

The notion was that stockholders say nothing. The fact seems to be that they can be noisy and nasty as all get out.

The notion was that officers are glad to see stockholders turn out for the meetings. The fact is that one of the officers had to be restrained from punching one of the stockholders in the nose. Another stockholder according to the story offered his own nose for punching if necessary.

Charles M Schwab, 75-year-old chairman of the board and the cause of these unheard of doings must wonder what the world's coming to. The general effect no doubt will be to enliven interest in stockholders meetings in the future because what has happened once can happen again.

Frostbitten

Day after day during the recent hard winter in California farmers fought for their crops with smudge pots to raise the temperature a few degrees and prevent frost.

In Ohio for the next month farmers will face the same [illegible] but without smudge pots for defense. [illegible] because Ohio is [illegible] in California but because it's [illegible] a different kind of battle [illegible] the gentle nips which [illegible] California.

The killing frost is a possibility in most parts of the state until [illegible] strawberries, peaches, cherries, apples and pears all must survive the danger. The anxious grower who must face [illegible] with them never [illegible] little [illegible] sign of danger has [illegible].

When he [illegible] nothing to [illegible] The anxious look [illegible] these lines which [illegible] across the foreheads [illegible] farmers have [illegible] of age. They may [illegible] pure.

Laws for Lynch Law

EVERY session of congress since the World war has seen anti-lynching bills introduced and one by one the bills have been pigeonholed. Advocates believe passage of such legislation is out of the question [illegible] senate rule permit filibuster and southern senators will fight to the limit against any anti-lynching bill. Consequently the senate simply never gets to vote on the question.

In 1922 the Dyer anti-lynching bill got through the house by almost a 2 to 1 vote but died in the senate from a filibuster of southern senators. In 1934 the Costigan-Wagner bill was reported favorably by the senate judiciary committee but did not come to a vote in either house. It was supported by President Roosevelt.

In 1935 a week's filibuster prevented a senate vote on a motion to take up the bill and finally the senate agreed to adjourn for the legislative day thus shelving the motion. The adjournment was proposed by Sen Robinson administration leader in the senate and was voted by 48 to 32. The Democrats were 33 to 14 for and the Republicans 17 to 4 against adjourning.

Last year northern Democrats with an eye to the Negro vote forced a Democratic caucus on antilynching legislation but a quorum could not be obtained for the caucus after it had been called. Late in the session a discharge petition on the legislation was completed in the house but too late to be effective—as was realized by some of the signers.

The anti-lynching bills introduced in this session are likely to be almost identical. They penalize officials who flagrantly neglect their duty of protection an individual in their custody or of prosecuting persons who injure him. Counties in which mob violence occurs are to be fined. Spring Turns Roosevelt To "Golf"

BY PAUL MALLON

WASHINGTON April 17—President Roosevelt is said to have a new analogy for his supreme court problem.

Once long ago he likened his early new deal situation to the problem of a football team with himself as quarterback calling the signals. Now he is thinking about his 5 to 4 supreme court line-up in terms of golf.

"I feel" he said in substance to a friend "like a golfer starting out fresh on a nine-hole course four down."

Last Laugh

It will sound absurd now but the senate confirmed those three all-powerful members of the National Labor Relations Board without a hearing or debate.

Doubt it? If you will but there is not a detectable scrap of evidence in the committee or congressional records as to what kind of men compose this new labor supreme court. Or at any rate there is only one inconsequential scrap. It is a letter from someone protesting that one of the appointees owed something over $100 and declined to pay it but the lawyer for the appointee pointed out that the court had ruled out the bill on the statute of limitations.

If there is anything else the senate clerks who handled the nominations have been unable to find it.

Answer

The answer to this phenomenon is that few senators really thought the board was constitutional or would ever be important. No one paid any attention to the appointments when they were confirmed in August 1935.

The general supposition was the appointees would serve until the court kicked out the Wagner act. Even clerks declined to take jobs with the board or sought transfer because positions there were considered insecure.

It is now the board's turn to laugh. Jobs there are not only secure but the board has been given greater power under the recent court decision than most of the other boards in Washington.

Men Behind

It is even difficult now to ascertain who was behind the appointments and who recommended them.

Senator Joe Guffey maestro of Pennsylvania politics is supposed to be the backer of Board Chairman Madden a former University of Pittsburgh professor. Mr Guffey also is being credited with the second Pennsylvania appointee on the board Donald Wakefield Smith a former Homestead steel worker whose father is an assistant superintendent in the mill. The third board man Edwin S Smith a Harvard man from Brookline Mass is attributed to Senator Walsh of Massachusetts.

It is clear however that Senators Guffey and Walsh were just the front men who got clearance papers for the appointees in the senate.

Others

Labor Secretary Perkins is supposed to have dug up the board men with the help chiefly of her Wyzanski group in the labor department and Senator Wagner.

Edward A Filene the Boston department store enthusiast for the cooperative movement probably first suggested Edwin Smith who formerly was a personnel manager in the Filene store. Smith also is classified in the Frankfurter group. It seems probable also that D W Smith was put forward originally by Attorney General Margiotti of Pennsylvania a former Republican who trains with the Earle crowd now.

There is no question that the board is thoroughly labor conscious. As between the Green and Lewis factions there is evidence that it has formerly been closer to Lewis than to Green but not obviously so.

Trick?

Mr Roosevelt's surprising lack of enthusiasm after his supreme court victory is said to have been derived at least in part from the attitude of his two unofficial attorneys general Mr Cohen and Mr Corcoran. Nearly every legal development around the White House is generally attributed to them and about 90 per cent of the attributions seem to be right.

Mr Cohen certainly failed to toss his hat in the air at the decision. To his friends he passed the understanding that court has frequently based decisions in the past upon the stream of commerce theory of interstate commerce.

Gossip

Thus at any rate is what they are saying in conversation. The essence of their feelings seems to be that they suspect the court playing a trick on them that if they drop their fight the next case will be thrown out on other ground.

Mr Corcoran did not throw his hat because he wears none. But he is reported playing his accordion violently in consonance with Mr Cohen.

It should be said that the decision struck very few outside lawyers that way. Most of the outsiders believe the court has laid down in good faith an entirely new and extensive definition of interstate commerce which will afford Mr Roosevelt the opportunity to accomplish much of what he wants to do.

To A Brave And Loyal Pal

BY O O McINTYRE

NEW YORK April 17—A letter to Dog Heaven: Dear Billy—I came across your badly chewed but favorite ball in a closet today and put it away quickly with a slight choke. It has been more than a year now since you went away and we miss you as much as ever.

I think it was largely because after great suffering you faced the Last Terror with such magnificent valour. A patient little sigh, a twitch of your nubbin tail and it was all over. For several nights I walked the streets trying to get hold of myself. I wanted you back then as I do now.

I'd meet Terrance the cop who used to tickle you behind the ear, John the Waldorf doorman and others who knew you and they'd inquire "Where's Billy?" I'd have to shake my head and go rushing on. They looked at me strangely and then somehow they understood. They no longer ask but they miss you.

Your mistress packed most of your playthings, your harness, leash, brushes and your water bowl, Pour le Chien, that we got at Rouen and sent them to the homeless dogs at the Bide-a-Wee. You were never selfish and I'm sure you would approve that.

I have been thinking of that dreadful night we arrived in Paris and the pink-cheeked page boy in the tambourine cap took you out for an airing and despite the warning took off your leash—and in your bewilderment you bolted. When he returned white faced holding the empty harness it was the nearest I ever came to fainting. Poor deaf Billy lost in a fog in a strange city. For four frantic hours I searched and finally found you surrounded by a group of chattering, gesticulating Frenchmen at the Coty corner of the Place Vendome. How you literally bounded into my arms with what seemed a human shriek of joy when you saw me and licked all my hands and face with your warm wet tongue. Then you sank into a fit of exhaustion. All the rest of that night you did not move. I know for I could not sleep.

• • •

Because you were deaf and so legless [illegible] I suppose you entwined our [illegible] more than the average dog. And left such an enormous gap. For a time Nubble missed you too and when going out for an airing would suddenly stop, look back and whimper. He did not understand I cannot say. Nubble has taken your place in my heart. No one ever will. But he eased the ache. The food is [illegible] some [illegible] wrench [illegible] heart [illegible]

SHIRRING ADDS TOUCH OF BRIGHTNESS TO AFTERNOON STYLE

[illegible] the charming Miss [illegible] at her engagement book to [illegible] the day's schedule, for anyone [illegible] wears such a charming frock [illegible] sure to be one of the [illegible] girls in town! Anne Adams shows how flattering are [illegible] sleeves, and these of Pattern 4366 are distinguished by [illegible] of easy-to-do-shirring. [illegible] picture yourself in the [illegible] neckline that tops [illegible] (also accented by [illegible] a simply cut bodice? [illegible] the way the skirt flares [illegible] latest fashion, or the [illegible] puffed or flared sleeves! [illegible] selection of fabrics— [illegible] dainty lawn in a [illegible] sheer voile, eyelet [illegible] or silk crepe.

[illegible] is available in sizes [illegible] 28, 30, 32, 34, 36, 38 [illegible] takes 3⅝ yards 39 [illegible] Illustrated step-by-step [illegible] included.

[illegible] cents (15) in coins [illegible] preferred) for [illegible] Adams pattern. Write [illegible] name, address and [illegible]

[illegible] wardrobe—Yours! Order [illegible] Anne Adams Pattern Book and see how easy it is to make becoming, up-to-minute outfits quickly and inexpensively at home! Revel in a wide choice of sparkling all-occasion frocks, suits, blouses — with special, slimming styles for the stouter woman. Practical, fashion-right models for kiddies and "debs", too! Fabric tips. Book fifteen cents. Pattern fifteen cents. Twenty-five cents for both when ordered together.

A NICE HOWDEEDOO, TIM - THEY LOCK US IN HERE BE-FORE I'VE EVEN HAD A CHANCE TO MEET TH' PRINCESS
AND YOU WON'T HAVE THAT PLEASURE, SPUD, BECAUSE WE'RE TO BE SENT AWAY TO-MORROW MORNING WITH COUNT BORSAT
MORDOT, I WISH TO SPEAK WITH BORSAT —
THE GUARD WILL LET YOU PASS INTO HIS HUT, LAZAC
WELL, I SEE YOU'VE CAUGHT UP TO ME, LAZAC
I KNOW WHY YOU TRIED TO PREVENT ME FROM REACHING HERE, BORSAT
YOU KNEW I I CAME TO BRING MORDOT BACK TO SIT ON THE THRONE OF LETITIA
MORDOT IS A COMMONER, LAZAC. HIS DAUGHTER, DELLAS, IS THE RIGHTFUL HEIR —AND YOU KNOW I CAME HERE TO TAKE HER BACK TO HER PEOPLE

GOODBYE, EZRA! SO LONG, JUDY! LET'S WAIT UNTIL THEIR PLANE IS OUT OF SIGHT!
COME ON, TOOTS, QUICK!
I THOUGHT THAT TAXI WOULD NEVER GET US HOME!
CASPER, WHAT'S ALL THE RUSH ABOUT?
IT'S NOT ON THE BED, OR UNDER THE BED, OR IN HERE OR ANYWHERE! NO SUCH LUCK!
WHAT ARE YOU LOOKING FOR?
THE OTHER TIME EZRA WENT AWAY HE LEFT $50,000.00 FOR ME UNDER THE BED AND I WAS HOPING HE'D DO IT AGAIN—
THIS TIME HE'S DOING YOU A BIGGER FAVOR! HE'S TEACHING YOU TO PADDLE YOUR OWN CANOE!

WELL, YOUNGSTER, I CAN SEE YOU LIKE FLOWERS
I DON'T JUST LIKE 'EM - I LOVE 'EM - I GUESS THERE AIN'T NOTHIN' IN THE WHOLE WORLD AS NICE AS AN APPLE ORCHARD
SPECIALLY WHEN IT'S ALL IN BLOOM - EVERY BLOSSOM LOOKS LIKE A LOVELY LITTLE PINK-AND-WHITE FLOWER BABY - ROCKIN' UP AND DOWN IN A CUTE, GREEN CRADLE
BLESS MY SOUL, CHILD - YOU'RE A'TALKIN' POETRY LIKE YOU READ IN A BOOK - I MEAN THEM AS CAN READ - LITTLE PINK-AND-WHITE FLOWER BABIES - I'LL HAVE TO TELL THE MISSUS WHAT YOU SAID
G'WAN, YOU'RE FOOLIN' ME - BUT GEE, THE BLOSSOMS LOOK SO BEAUTIFUL AN' SMELL SO PERFUMY, NO MATTER WHAT YOU SAY, IT AIN'T NICE ENOUGH -
